

LPA student in GFNF spotlight

By Barbara March
YourNews contributor

ST. LUCIE WEST – Guardians for New Futures (GFNF) not-for-profit agency recently received a donation/contribution from an outstanding young adult, Julio Saenz. Julio is a sophomore at Lincoln Park Academy and earned the funds through his “Personal Project.” Through his fundraising and support of GFNF there will be a special volunteer opportunity created for him in the coming months.

In 2014, GFNF will continue to focus on educational training, community service, holiday gift drive and providing services for the children in crisis on the Treasure

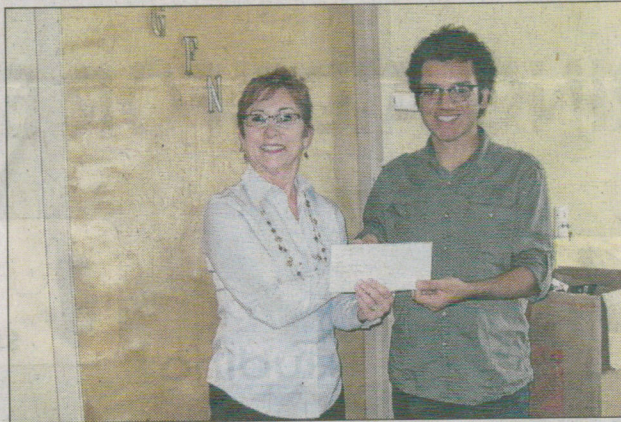

PHOTO PROVIDED

Lincoln Park Academy student Julio Saenz presents contribution to GFNF Board President Debbie Butler.

Coast. Julio's youth and fresh new ideas for children in life-changing crisis and their needs is welcomed and openly received by the GFNF board and volunteers.

For more information regarding GFNF, visit website <http://www.gfnf4kids.org> or write to GFNF, 546 NW University Blvd., Suite 203, Port St. Lucie, FL 34986.